

1928 PRAYER-BOOK BURNT AT EXETER: PROTEST SCENES.

PRAYER-BOOK PROTEST.—The procession proceeding to the Deanery on Saturday to deliver the protest against the use of the 1928 Prayer-book in Exeter Cathedral.—"Western Morning News" Photo.

A COPY of the "Illegal" Prayer-book of 1928 being burnt outside Exeter Cathedral.—"Western Morning News" Photo.

IN THE LOOSE.—A "pick-up" by a Harlequins forward in the match with Devonport Services at the Rectory on Saturday.—"Western Morning News" Photo.

CHARLES HARRISON, the principal comedian in the Theatre Royal pantomime, Plymouth.

AIR MINISTER AT TEIGNMOUTH.—Lady Bailey—the famous airwoman—Lord Thomson (Minister for Air), Bennett (chairman), and Sir Robert Newman, M.P., at the Teignmouth Chamber of Commerce dinner.—"Western Morning News" Photo.

HARLEQUINS AT DEVONPORT.—One of the Harlequins side, who gained a one-point victory, breaking up an attack by the Services.—"Western Morning News" Photo.

PERRIER KEEPS YOU FIT

YOUR daily health depends on the quality of water you drink. Perrier is drinking water in its most perfect form—of remarkable purity, of delicate mineralisation and sparkling with its natural gas.

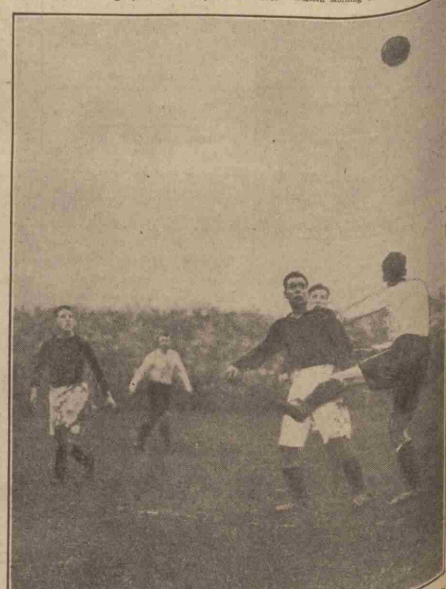

Perrier
The Champagne of Table Waters

The crowning glory of Perrier Water is its natural gas. Perrier imparts its unique delicacy and vitality to whatever it is mixed with, be it Whisky, Brandy, White Wines, etc.

SOLD ALL OVER THE WORLD

"WASSAILING" THE APPLE TREES.—Firing through the branches of the apple trees to frighten the "little imps of evil" during the "wassailing" at Carhampton.—Photo: Killy, Walshead.

HEADWORK.—A Bristol Rovers defender heading away following a corner in the match at Hanc Park on Saturday, won by Plymouth Argyle by three goals to nil.